Williamsburg Tasting Trail:

- Williamsburg Winery
 - A vineyard on 300 acres that offers tours and tastings of its award-winning wines and two dining venues, the Gabriel Archer Tavern and Café Provençal.
- Alewerks Brewing Company
 - Williamsburg's first microbrewery, Alewerks offers brewery tours and tastings in its tap house and outdoor terrace, where 10 beers are on tap and a cask ale is served weekly.
- The Virginia Beer Company
 - A craft brewery, taproom, and beer garden that opened in the spring of 2016. Virginia Beer focuses on a small, high-quality core lineup and rotating limited-edition beers using a custom-designed pump system.
- Brass Cannon Brewing Company
 - A craft brewery that offers kegs, growlers, and draft selections in a new tasting room just down the street from AleWerks. In addition to its five brews, it offers four rotating seasonal selections.
- Silver Hand Meadery
 - The area's first meadery opened in early 2016 to offer this ancient honey-based fermented drink, entirely produced on the premises. The Silver Hand Meadery offers tastings and light-food pairings with the mead production completely visible to patrons.
- Williamsburg Distillery
 - This craft micro-distillery offers "American Heritage" spirits using 18th-century recipes and techniques.
